
Call for Abstracts- 2016 Conference on Medicine and Religion

Dear Colleague:

We would like to solicit your kind assistance to publicize the attached Call for Abstracts for the 2016 Conference on Medicine and Religion, which is to be held on March 4-6, 2016, at the JW Marriott (Galleria) in Houston, TX (www.MedicineandReligion.com).

The 2016 Conference on Medicine and Religion is a leading forum for discourse and scholarship at the intersection of medicine and religion. The forum exists to enable scholars and health professionals to gain a deeper and more practical understanding of how religion relates to the practice of medicine. The conference features over a hundred unique presentations each year.

We would like to spread the word about this opportunity to as many interested scholars, practitioners, and students as possible. To that end, we would be grateful if you would consider posting the attached flyer on a bulletin board in your institution and/or circulating it on your organization’s listserv and newsletter.

Thank you very much for your kind consideration.

Warm Regards,

John Graham, MD, D.Min, Institute for Spirituality and Health
Farr Curlin, MD, Duke University
Michael Balboni, MDiv, PhD, Harvard University

On behalf of the Conference Planning Committee
